Description

Akyga® AK-AD-38 is a high quality mini DisplayPort (DP) to HDMI converter. It is used to install cabling for audio and video devices. It can be used to connect a laptop to an external monitor or a home theater set to a TV. Moreover, thanks to its compatibility with Thunderbolt connector, video transmission is also possible from Apple devices.

Gold-plated tips and high precision of the adapter allow for the highest quality signal transmission. In addition, the HDMI interface enables transmission of high resolution Ultra HD (4K) signal. This transmission can be made only one way, from mini DisplayPort to HDMI.
