Description

The Akyga® AK-PD-32 charger is designed to safely and efficiently power Casio Keyboards. Thanks to its precisely matched parameters of 9 V and 1 A, it ensures stable instrument performance, allowing you to fully enjoy its possibilities. This is an indispensable accessory both in everyday practice and when performing on stage.

A Perfect Match for Casio Instruments

The AK-PD-32 charger is compatible with a wide range of older Casio Keyboard models. Thanks to its standard 5.5x1.4 mm connector, it will work perfectly as a replacement for the original power supply, guaranteeing safe and reliable use. Carefully selected parameters protect your instrument from overload, while ensuring stable operation even during intensive use.

Everyday Comfort

With a 1.5 m cable, the charger offers the convenience and flexibility of connecting your Casio instrument, regardless of the room layout. Its compact and lightweight design makes it easy to store, so you can always have it at hand. It's a practical solution that's great for the home, as well as in the studio or on stage.

Safety First

The Akyga® AK-PD-32 Keyboard Charger is equipped with advanced safety features to protect your instrument from overvoltage, overheating and short circuits. This ensures your instrument is always in good hands. Safety in use goes hand in hand with high performance, making this power adapter a reliable accessory for musicians.

The indispensable power supply for Casio Keyboard

Whether you need a replacement for a damaged adapter or simply want a spare, the Akyga® AK-PD-32 is the ideal choice. Designed with durability, reliability and comfort in mind, it will meet the needs of anyone who needs a stable power supply for their Casio Keyboard. With it, your instrument will always be ready to play — regardless of location or situation.
